

Driving Directions to Chateau Lake Louise

From Calgary International Airport (about 2 hour 30 minutes)

- The Calgary International Airport is in the north eastern quarter of the city of Calgary. All directions to Lake Louise will require travel westward.
- Depart the Calgary International Airport. At the first intersection (there is a Husky station on the left hand corner) turn left (North) onto Barlow Trail.
- Follow Barlow Trail for approximately 2 minutes until you reach the exit for Airport Trail. Turn left (West) onto Airport Trail. Continue driving on Airport Trail for approximately 2 minutes until you reach the exit for Deerfoot Trail (Hwy 2). Turn right (North) onto Deerfoot Trail (Hwy 2). Continue North on Deerfoot Trail for about 5 minutes, then exit onto Stoney Trail West. Continue on Stoney Trail for approximately 20 minutes until you reach Highway #1 (also known as 16th Ave.).

- Continue on Highway #1 for approximately 1-hour until you reach the Banff National Park entrance gates. The gates are open 24-hours as all visitors to the park are required to pay an access fee ($9/person/day).
- After that continue to follow the signs for Lake Louise, continuing on the TransCanada Highway
- Forty minutes past the Town of Banff, take the right side turn-off for Lake Louise
- Turn left at the top of that road, proceed through 2 stop signs and continue straight on this road up hill; (4 km, 2.4 miles) to the front doors of the hotel
- The trip will take about 2.5 hours from Calgary, weather dependent. Calgary is 183 km from Lake Louise

From the East (Calgary, about 2 hours)

- Take TransCanada Highway 1 West (also signed as 16th Avenue North heading West)
- Once you arrive at the Banff National Park gates you will be required to pay a fee.
- After that continue to follow the signs for Lake Louise, continuing on the TransCanada Highway

- Forty minutes past the Town of Banff, take the right side turn-off for Lake Louise
- Turn left at the top of that road, proceed through 2 stop signs and continue straight on this road up hill;(4 km, 2.4 miles)to the front doors of the hotel
- The trip will take about 2.5 hours from Calgary, weather dependent. Calgary is 183 km from Lake Louise

From the West (Vancouver, about 9 hours)

- Take TransCanada Highway 1 East (via Revelstoke, Golden - approximately two hours) until you pass the border into Alberta which becomes Banff National Park.
- In Banff National Park, follow the signs for the hamlet of Lake Louise
- Exit on the right, proceed through 2 stop signs and continue straight up hill on this road (4km, 2.4mi)
- This will take you directly to the front doors of the hotel

From the North (Edmonton, about 4.5 hours)

- Take Hwy 2 South to Calgary (via Red Deer)
- Then take TransCanada Highway 1 West (also signed as 16th Avenue North heading West.)
- Once you arrive at the Banff National Park gates you will be required to pay a fee.
- In Banff National Park, follow the signs for the hamlet of Lake Louise.
- Take the Lake Louise exit then turn left at the intersection.
- Proceed through 2 stop signs and continue on this road (4km, 2.4mi)
- This will take you directly to the front doors of the hotel

From the South (Montana)

- Take Hwy 93 North (via Radium) to Castle Junction and then go west (turn left)
- In Banff National Park, follow the signs for the hamlet of Lake Louise.
- Take the Lake Louise exit then turn left at the intersection.
- Proceed through 2 stop signs and continue on this road up hill (4km, 2.4mi)
- This will take you directly to the front doors of the hotel.

